Basics

Our website is operated by a hosting service provider based in Germany. When you visit our website, you do not have to provide any information about yourself. When accessing our website or downloading files, usage data is transmitted from the browser you are using and recorded in so-called server log files, e.g.

- Accessed website or the name of the downloaded file
- Date and time of access and duration of access
- Amount of data transferred (bytes)
- Source or reference from which you came to the website (origin URL)
- Browser used and any add-ons installed on your device
- Operating system of your end device
- IP address of your end device and http status code

The data collected cannot be assigned to a specific person and is only used for statistical evaluations, to improve our website and to ensure trouble-free operation. We reserve the right to subsequently check the server log files if there is a justified suspicion based on concrete indications of illegal use of our website.

If you are redirected to other sites via links on our site, please inform yourself there about the respective handling of your data.

Handling of personal data

privacy policy

We collect, use, store and pass on your personal data only to the extent that we are permitted to do so on the basis of legal provisions or your consent.

Personal data is any information that relates to an identified or identifiable person, such as your name, email address or phone number.

We collect and process your personal data when you send us an email or fill out a contact form. Which personal data is specifically collected can be found on the respective contact form or you decide yourself which personal data you send us by e-mail. By sending your message, you agree to the processing of your transmitted data and we process it on the basis of Article 6, paragraph 1, a GDPR. We store or use the data you transmit only to contact you and to be able to answer or process your request. If you wish, we will delete your data after the communication has been completed, provided there are no legal requirements for storing the data.

If you open a customer account, your data (especially name, address, e-mail and password) will be processed to register and create a customer login. With the stored data, you can shop faster with us and view the orders you have placed at any time. You can remove the account again by sending us a message or using a delete function. If you place an order, we also collect personal data in accordance with the order form specifications in order to be able to process the contract with you. By submitting your order, you agree to the processing of your transmitted data and we store and use them on the basis of Article 6, Paragraph 1, b GDPR. In principle, we only use your personal data within our company. We only pass on your data to our direct service partners who are required to process and process the contract concluded with you, such as shipping service providers, payment service providers, merchandise management service providers, service providers for order processing, web hosts, IT service providers and dropshipping dealers. With all data transfers, we strictly observe the legal requirements and limit them to the minimum required for the respective purpose.

Unless otherwise stated, we only store your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfill the purposes pursued, or as long as we are required to do so for legal or tax reasons.

Comments

It is possible to write a comment. Your data (e.g. name/pseudonym, e-mail address) will then only be processed for the purpose of publishing your comment. The legal basis for this processing is Article 6, paragraph 1, f GDPR.

Our legitimate interest is the public exchange of user opinions on specific topics and products. The publication serves e.g. of transparency and opinion-forming. Your interest in data protection is preserved because you can publish your comment under a pseudonym. A specific storage period is not provided. You can request the deletion of your comment at any time.

privacy policy

You have the right to object at any time to the data processing, which is based on Article 6, paragraph 1, f GDPR and is not used for direct advertising, for reasons that arise from your particular situation.

In the case of direct advertising, however, you can object to the processing at any time without giving reasons.

Cookies

Technically necessary cookies are used on our website. These are small text files that are not permanently stored in or by your internet browser on your end device. These cookies enable e.g. B. placing several products in a shopping cart.

Other cookies remain permanent and recognize your browser on your next visit. These cookies enable you e.g. You can permanently store your passwords for a customer account.

The legal basis for processing is Article 6, paragraph 1, f GDPR.

Our legitimate interest is the functionality of our website. The user data collected by technically necessary cookies and the long-term cookies described here are not used to create user profiles. This protects your interest in data protection.

The technically necessary cookies are usually deleted when the browser is closed. Permanently stored cookies have different lifespans, from a few minutes to several years.

If you do not want these cookies to be saved, please deactivate the acceptance of these cookies in your internet browser. However, this can result in a functional restriction of our website. You can also delete permanently stored cookies at any time via your browser.

Tracking and Analysis Tools

Web analysis with Google Analytics

- Purpose of processing: This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Ireland Limited, Gordon House, Barrow Street, Dublin 4, Ireland ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are stored on your computer and enable an analysis of your use of the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is usually transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. If IP anonymization is activated on this website, however, your IP address will be shortened beforehand by Google within member states of the European Union or in other contracting states of the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be sent to a Google server in the USA and shortened there. On behalf of the operator of this website, Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide other services related to website activity and internet usage to the website operator.
- The legal basis for this processing is Article 6, paragraph 1a GDPR.
- Categories of recipients: Google and its affiliates.
- Transmission to a third country: Google Ireland Limited is a company affiliated with Google LLC. Google LLC is located in the USA (1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043).
- Storage period: 50 months

privacy policy

- Right of objection: You can prevent the storage of cookies by setting your browser software accordingly; we would like to point out to you however that in this case you will if applicable not be able to use all functions of this website in full. You can also prevent Google from collecting the data generated by the cookie and related to your use of the website (including your IP address) and from processing this data by Google by downloading the browser plug-in available under the following link and install: optout
- You can also prevent the collection by setting an opt-out cookie. If you wish to prevent the future collection of your data when you visit this website, please click here: Disable Google Analytics

Your rights

You have various rights in relation to your personal data. If you wish to assert one or more of these rights, please contact us. Please address your request by e-mail or post to the contact options given under "Responsible". In order to be able to process your application, we must be able to clearly identify you personally. This can be done, for example, with an application signed by you personally and a copy/scan of your identity card or passport. All information that is not necessary for identification can and should be made unrecognizable on the copy or scan, such as the ID number or the access number of the new ID card with online ID function. Your request must be processed free of charge and without delay.

- According to Article 7, paragraph 3 GDPR, you have the right to revoke your declaration of consent under data protection law at any time. This does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until the revocation.
 - You have a right to information. This means that you can request information from us as to whether we are processing your personal data and if so, which data is being processed and for what purposes. Details and details can be found in Article 15 GDPR.
 - You have the right to rectification. If we have stored incorrect or incomplete personal data about you, you can request that this data be corrected or supplemented. Details and details can be found in Article 16 GDPR.
 - You have the right to erasure. If the legal requirements are met, you can request the deletion of your personal data stored by us. Details and details can be found in Article 17 GDPR.
 - You have the right to restrict processing. In certain circumstances, you can request that we restrict the processing of your personal data. Details and details can be found in Article 18 GDPR.
 - You have a right to data portability. Under certain circumstances, you can request that you receive the personal data you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or that this data is transmitted directly to another person responsible. Details and details can be found in Article 20 GDPR.
 - You have a right to object. You can revoke declarations of consent to the processing and use of your personal data at any time. We then no longer process and use your data unless we are entitled or obliged to further processing. Details and details can be found in Article 21 GDPR.
 - You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. If you believe that the processing of your personal data violates the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you have the right to report this to a supervisory authority. Details and details can be found in Article 77 GDPR.
